TREAT YOUR DAD WITH SWEET CHARITY ON "FATHER'S DAY"

Kuala Lumpur, 26 May 2008 - If your father is a fan of Ramli Sarip or Sweet Charity, bring him back to those glorious rock and roll days with Ramli Sarip & Sweet Charity shows - on 14th (Saturday) and 15th (Sunday) June 2008 at the Dewan Merdeka, Putra World Trade Centre, PWTC, as a gift on this coming "Father's Day".

What more heartening to learn is that you will also be contributing for a good cause, because part of the proceeds from the tickets sold will go towards IJN Foundation to help "needy" fathers who need to have their heart treatment or children of "needy" fathers who need to undergo their treatment at Institut Jantung Negara (IJN).

Sweet Charity, the band that once revolutionised the local rock scene and rocked the nation with their brand of rock and roll will be staging a Special Father's Day Celebration.

The band which was co-founded by Ramli Sarip and Rahman Sarbani got its break in 1979 when Warner Music released their first self-titled album. The album which sold more than 50,000 copies, excluding the uncontrollable rate of piracy had songs such as 'Pelarian', 'Kamelia', 'Musibah', 'Zakiah' and 'Pelarian' which became instant hits. These numbers have remained Sweet Charity classics so much so that fans have forgotten that some were cover versions.

The group however disbanded in 1985 when individual members decided to move on in different directions, with different objectives. Each had a different outlook in life after the success and began on individual career paths.

This Father's Day, give you dad a ticket that is good for "Dad's Day Off".
